Commission of Judicial Conduct:

To Whom It May Concern:

Re: [   ]

I would like help with 2 different matters handled somewhat by the above mentioned court. First when I took [   ] to court because the mechanic ruined the engine in my Cadillac; the Judge seemed slightly asleep. Even though I took the receipt showing the guarantee the Judge somehow allowed me the labor instead of the whole judgment. I obtained the judgment and thereafter the court issued a satisfaction even though I was not paid at all. I questioned their "system" and of course received a denial. Have not yet figured that out but maybe you can. There are 2 clerks that work there that seem to be very involved and speak for themselves, the court and of course the Judge.

Secondly I received a speeding ticket [   ] of course I paid the ticket and [   ] received a bill showing that I owed for insurance coverage. At the time I had insurance, gave the court proof at the time of payment, still have insurance on my Cadillac and received a threat of my license being suspended if not paid. I, of course, paid it so that my license would not be affected and questioned later. Again I questioned the payment and received a denial. Again please explain for I don't understand.

As I see it the [   ] court owes me [   ] for negligence on the first judgment and my refund of this insurance amount that I paid erroneously.

I've also contacted Judge [   ] office which does not seem to be concerned.

Sincerely,

[   ]
