

State of Arizona
COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 12-124

Complainant: No. 1442200364A

Judge: No. 1442200364B

ORDER

The complainant alleged that a justice of the peace improperly granted and then extended an order of protection.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judge engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

After reviewing the information provided by the complainant and the electronic case history, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judge did not violate the Code in this case. The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of the judge's rulings. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23.

Dated: July 16, 2012.

FOR THE COMMISSION

Re: Case CC2011-

The judge issued an order of protection based on text messaging (or supposed) not directed toward Plaintiff. The plaintiff lied and said I hit him, the judge did NOT ask for evidence. Judge has effectively thrown me off property that I own, destroyed my business of 10 years, has forced me to retain legal representation, as well as has extended the order of protection with out cause. I would like to hold this judge accountable for damages however immunity does not allow me to do so.
