

State of Arizona
COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL CONDUCT

Disposition of Complaint 16-236

Judge:

Complainant:

ORDER

The complainant alleged a superior court judge failed to rule on motions and set hearings, tampered with court documents, was biased against him, and prejudged his case.

The responsibility of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine if the judge engaged in conduct that violated the provisions of Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution or the Code of Judicial Conduct and, if so, to take appropriate disciplinary action. The purpose and authority of the commission is limited to this mission.

The commission does not have jurisdiction to review the legal sufficiency of the judge's rulings. In addition, the commission found no evidence of ethical misconduct and concluded that the judge did not violate the Code in this case. Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed in its entirety, pursuant to Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Commission member Anna Mary Glaab did not participate in the consideration of this matter.

JURISDICTION

The _____, _____, has territorial jurisdiction over the _____ of _____ to hear the present _____, pursuant to Rule 4(b), Rules of Procedure for Special Actions. Petitioner has been deemed unable to pay docketing fees by the _____ court and is thus exempt from docketing fees. Circumstances exists to bring this action in _____ because the highest judicial officer in _____ has failed in his legally mandated duty to perform judicial and ministerial acts (and indeed has actively obstructed them) which he has no discretion in the manner of its performance. See Hunt v. Schilling, 27 Ariz.1 (1925); Board of Barber Examiners v. Walker, 67 Ariz. 156 (1948) citing Robert Leshner, 7Ariz.L.Rev. 42. Special Action jurisdiction is appropriate when there is no plain, speedy and adequate remedy by appeal. Rule 1(a), supra, Special Actions.

Essentially, Petitioner sued the wrong individuals and became a defacto enemy of the state, of the famously corrupt _____ which has resulted in rampant denials of due process and a bizarre boasting about it together with constant inference with Petitioner's efforts to appeal. This has been going on for _____ months. This petition asks the _____ to order the _____ to process appeals, some of which have been pending for _____ months, to compel the _____ to assign a case which, despite being pled, served and answered, has lain dormant for _____ months, and to compel the _____ court to hear Petitioner's _____ which has lain dormant for _____ months and to hear a _____ and _____ which has been deliberately ignored for _____ months. Alternatively, and preferably, Petitioner asks this Court to review these matters de novo or to order their transfer to an unbiased jurisdiction such that a fair and impartial trial can be had and further
