ORDER

December 23, 2020

The Complainant alleged a superior court judge was biased against her, was corrupt, and was ignoring fraud and a breach of fiduciary duty.

The role of the Commission on Judicial Conduct is to impartially determine whether a judicial officer has engaged in conduct that violates the Arizona Code of Judicial Conduct or Article 6.1 of the Arizona Constitution. There must be clear and convincing evidence of such a violation in order for the Commission to take disciplinary action against a judicial officer.

The Commission does not have jurisdiction to overturn, amend, or remand a judicial officer's legal rulings. The Commission reviewed all relevant available information and concluded there was not clear and convincing evidence of ethical misconduct in this matter. The complaint is therefore dismissed pursuant to Commission Rules 16(a) and 23(a).

Commission members Barbara Brown and Joseph C. Kreamer did not participate in the consideration of this matter.

Copies of this order were distributed to all appropriate persons on December 23, 2020.

[redacted] was our attorney for a home sale gone bad. [redacted] filed suit against buyers (that did not close). The buyers did not have the money to purchase home, the [redacted] the buyers and our Realtors, did not verify the buyers had money or were qualified to purchase a $ [redacted] home. The Realtors, both, took buyers word they were paying cash and accepted $ [redacted] down on a $ [redacted] house. These Realtors gave the key to our house and did not accompany them. These people went in our house while we were at work, I found out about Realtors giving them the key by noticing my clothes in my closet was all rearranged, pushed around. These people no doubt went through every closet, drawer and closet in our house when we were out, they could have stolen everything we had. The problem, [redacted] did not include the Realtors in our lawsuit! [redacted] was recommended by our realtor and my ex husband went with him. I had already left the state so I was not involved as I would have liked. I found out [redacted] did not include our realtor and the other realtor because they were friends. As a result, we paid tons of money to [redacted] for a uncollectable lawsuit, if buyers had no money to purchase home, why would we expect to be able to collect on a lawsuit?? Common sense, [redacted] should not have filed this lawsuit without including both Realtors. [redacted] caused this mess by their incompetence. Also, one can assume the Realtor insured to cover their incompetence! Then we would have had a collectable win judgment. Not collectable! [redacted] should be disbarred! incompetent attorney AVOID
